To Whom It May Concern,

Working with CalAsia Construction was a great experience. Trustworthy, efficient and dependable, they took care of us every step of the way. This being our first project we had a lot of questions and concern but they made us feel comfortable and we couldn't be happier with the results. Even though our project was small (only 700 square feet) they were completely dedicated to helping us realize our dream. The space turned out exactly how we envisioned it, and we will be going to them first on all future projects. A big thanks to John, our project manager Ernie and the rest of the CalAsia team, their knowledge and attention to detail makes them a superior choice.

Sincerely,
Nathan McCall
